

Thrill of Hope

Part 3

Do you remember the anticipation you felt leading up to Christmas? The 1st Christmas felt like that. Generations of men and women had been waiting for the birth of a Savior that had been promised by God. We have our doubts, struggles and dark moments when we don't feel God and we want to walk away. God's promises are true and Christmas is the proof. Join us for A Thrill of Hope and know that your faith is definitely not misplaced.

Luke 1:1-38

1. We want the _____ of our lives to make _____.
2. There is something _____ us that wants it all to _____ together.
3. There is a _____.
4. God is _____.
5. It's about the _____ of God.
6. God is saying..."Things happen according to My _____ and My _____.
7. You could legitimately ask..."_____ God _____?"
8. That thing _____ you that wants to see an _____ to all the randomness is the _____ of God inside you.
9. Mary _____ what I hope _____ can say. Luke 1:38
10. Faith is _____ God when He doesn't seem to be _____.