

Fork in the Road Part 4

Every day we make choices. Those choices determine who we are and where we end up. When we come to that fork in the road it matters which road we take. We all want the big answers to questions like "What is my Purpose", but we only understand our greater purpose by understanding our daily purpose. Little things matter and our little choices have a bigger impact than we think. Our choices have consequences. Join us as we learn which path to take when we face that "Fork in the Road"...the decision will change your life.

1. We can _____ what we have time for.
